

Ghana Chemical Society Presents

21st Annual Conference

The 21st Annual Ghana Chemical Society Conference will be held in Kumasi. The conference will feature keynote presentations, panel discussions, workshops, oral and poster presentations, networking, and an awards dinner.

Theme

Chemistry for a Sustainable Future: Innovations for Environment, Agriculture, Clean Energy and Public Health

Call for Abstracts

Thematic Areas

Oral and Poster presentations will cover any of the broad range sub-themes outlined below

- Environmental Solutions and Toxicology
- Sustainable Energy Materials
- Drug Discovery and Public Health
- Innovative Chemistry Solutions in Agriculture

Application Process

We welcome applications from scientists worldwide, professional bodies, and postgraduate students who have conducted high-level research involving Chemistry for a Sustainable Future and any of the conference sub-themes.

Successful applicants will be contacted with details regarding the next steps.

Application Deadline: 31st July 2025

Date Location Time

29 Sep - 03 Oct
2025

KNUST

9:00 AM to 5:00 PM
each day

Overview

The 21st. Annual Conference of the Ghana Chemical Society (GCS) will be held from 29th September to 3rd October 2025, at KNUST in Kumasi. The conference will cover innovations in various fields. The event includes keynote discussions, poster presentations, networking opportunities, and an awards dinner.

Conference Package

- 01 Award for Best Poster and Oral presentations at the GCS Annual Conference!
- 02 Academic - Industry Partnership
- 03 Opportunity for networking and collaboration
- 04 Lunch, Snacks and Dinner!

Conference Fee

Members - GHS 800
Non-members - GHS 1000
Students - GHS 300

Early bird Registration (By Aug 1st)

Members - GHS 600
Non-members - GHS 800
Students - GHS 200

Submit Now!

<https://shorturl.at/pSpeZ>